

EU Competitiveness: Navigating Challenges and Seizing Opportunities

This Forum features contributions from the participants in the 2024 joint annual CEPS-Intereconomics conference.

The Triple Transition and the Dawn of Quantum Policymaking

Andrea Renda, Centre for European Policy Studies, Brussels, Belgium.

How to Ensure a Skills-Based Future for European Competitiveness

Laura Nurski, Centre for European Policy Studies, Brussels, Belgium.

Cinzia Alcidi, Centre for European Policy Studies, Brussels, Belgium.

How Skills Can Drive Competitiveness

Alfonso Arpaia, European Commission, Brussels, Belgium.

Labour and Competitiveness in Germany: Embracing the Transformation to Boost Productivity

Bernd Fitzenberger, Institute for Employment Research (IAB), Nuremberg; and Friedrich-Alexander-Universität Erlangen-Nürnberg, Germany.

Christian Kagerl, Institute for Employment Research (IAB), Nuremberg, Germany.

Boosting the European Defence Industry in a Hostile World

Juan Mejino-Lopez, Bruegel, Brussels, Belgium.

Guntram B. Wolff, Université Libre de Bruxelles; Bruegel, Brussels, Belgium.

External Vulnerability Index: A Tool to Assess Trade Weaknesses

William Connell Garcia, European Commission, Brussels, Belgium.

Victor Ho, European Commission, Brussels, Belgium.

The EU Trade and Investment Policy: Navigating Challenges and Seizing Opportunities

Malorie Schaus, Centre for European Policy Studies, Brussels, Belgium.