

AN EDITORIAL NOTE

This final issue of Volume Thirteen marks the end of second year that the Boston College Industrial and Commercial Law Review has published six times during the academic year. The outgoing Board of Editors wishes to thank the many persons who have contributed to the volume—persons whose enthusiasm and dedication to legal scholarship have made the year a successful one: the many fine outside authors, our student contributors, the Review staff and secretaries, and those of the Boston College Law School faculty who have cared enough to devote considerable amounts of time and expertise to our task. We give special thanks to our faculty adviser, Professor Mary Ann Glendon, whose devotion to the law and high sense of professional responsibility have served to guide us well throughout the year.

It has been said that the reward for hard work is more hard work. The Board of Editors was fortunate this year to work with an outstanding group of Second Year members from whom we have selected a Successor Board to guide Volume Fourteen. We take great pleasure in entrusting the life of this Law Review to the new Board of Editors: Ann Fox, Editor in Chief, Goucher College; Francis J. Connell III, Executive Editor, Boston College; Henry R. Hopper, Managing Editor, Calvin College; David E. Krischer, Case & Solicitation Editor, Brooklyn College; Michael P. Abbott, Articles Editor, City College of New York; Richard E. Bird, Articles Editor, William and Mary; Paul G. Roberts, Articles Editor, University of Vermont; James G. Bruen, Casenote & Comment Editor, Brown University; Edith N. Dinneen, Casenote & Comment Editor, Smith College; Charles J. Hansen, Casenote & Comment Editor, University of Kansas; Alexander M. McNeil, Casenote & Comment Editor, Yale University; Patricia A. Ryan, Casenote & Comment Editor, State University of New York (New Paltz); Frank J. Teague, Casenote & Comment Editor, College of the Holy Cross; Richard M. Whiting, Casenote & Comment Editor, Harpur College; John J. Goger, Uniform Commercial Code Editor, Xavier College.

THE EDITORS