

INVITATION TO ATTEND THE PI GAMMA MU 2020 TRIENNIAL INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION

Have you ever been to Washington, D.C..... presented a paper in your discipline at the Capitol Building.... attended a Leadership Development Program and visited the National Museum of the Marine Corps.... or been to a keynote address by a leading authority in the social sciences at a major university? Then before you graduate, this is the time to advance in your discipline and meet other honor students from around the country who will attend this special 2020 Triennial Convention of Pi Gamma Mu, where you can do all of these things next November.

Lots of social activities are planned if you would like to meet students from other social science disciplines from other colleges and universities. You can begin to network with other professionals in your area and find out what careers await you with your degree. There are also opportunities to get a leadership certificate, be a part of the student caucus if you want to run for a student seat on the Board of trustees for Pi Gamma Mu. You might just want to sit back and relax, enjoy the activities planned, or visit the Smithsonian Museums.

The Convention is planned for Thursday, November 12 through Saturday, November 14, 2020. The convention registration fee is $150 and the deadline to register is October 15, 2020.

Stay tuned for details.

Students prepare to present their research on Capitol Hill at the 2011 Triennial International Convention in Washington, DC