

Fear not

I confess that most of my wants are manly.
Even the thoughts in my head are scary.
My dreams are pleasing and yet distracting.
My worries cannot be measured.
My fears seem so unsure?

But I look up and think about the very God that gave me life,
The very God that gives assurance and make things right.
I shall fear no one because I belong to Him.
I shall cry no more because I worship Him.

Earthly things are quite deceiving
Giving me a glimpse of fake heaven,
Blinding me with pleasures and no pain,
But I know deep in my heart
Everything happens with a reason
To Start a life full of gratitude,
A life full of prayers,
A life worth living.
