

Picture quiz

De Silva S

Journal of the Ceylon College of Physicians, 2024, 55, 170-171

Question 1

- 1.a. What abnormalities are noticeable on this 68-year-old woman's face?
- 1.b. State a unifying diagnosis.

Question 2

These painful lesions appeared within one day in a 75-year-old man.

- 2a. List three abnormalities.
- 2b. What is the most likely cause for this appearance?

¹Professor in Medicine, Faculty of Medicine, University of Kelaniya, Sri Lanka.

Question 3

This is the abdominal radiograph of a 58-year-old woman who complains of recurrent unilateral leg swelling. What abnormality is noted?

Question 4

These are the lower limbs of a 57-year-old man with advanced chronic liver disease who developed pneumonia complicated by septic shock and acute kidney injury. What are the lesions on his calves?

(Answers on page 162)