In January, I was asked to become the Editor of the Journal of the American Society of Questioned Document Examiners. In agreeing to do so, I had no concept of the challenge that lay before me. The work of many people goes into the production of a journal and I would like to thank each of them.

A special thank-you goes to previous editors Janis Winchester, Jerry Brown, and Grant Sperry. Janis devoted hundreds of hours getting the Journal off the ground. Jerry Brown and Grant Sperry stepped into the gap as interim editors and also did an outstanding job.

This journal could not function without the efforts of the ASQDE Executive Assistant, Nanette Davis, and I would be remiss if I did not mention the many hours devoted by the members of our dedicated Editorial Review Board.

I would also like to thank the authors. Without them, there would not be a Journal. Lastly, I must thank our readers. You are the purpose of this Journal.
